The Palestinian Islamic Jihad was also known amongst the conspirators as "the Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine"; "The Movement," and "The Family," and its members as "brothers" or "the youth."
3. There existed a PIJ manifesto, entitled, "Manifesto of the Islamic Jihad in Palestine," which described the goals and principles of PIJ, along with its command and organizational structure. The PIJ "Manifesto" described the PIJ as "The Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine is a revolutionary 'Jihad' Movement . . . it is the vanguard of the Islamic Revolutionary Movement." The "Manifesto" stated that the PIJ was led by a "Secretary General" and a "Shura Council," a central advisory committee. The "Manifesto" rejected "any peaceful solution to the Palestinian cause, and the affirmation of the Jihad solution and the martyrdom style as the only choice for liberation." The PIJ "Manifesto" indicated that the only purpose of PIJ was to destroy Israel and to end all

Western influence (of the “Great Satan-America”) in the region regardless of the cost to the inhabitants.

4. An individual who died while committing an act or acts of violence on behalf of the PIJ was described as a “martyr” for the PIJ; an individual who was arrested and incarcerated after committing an act or acts of violence on behalf of the PIJ was described as a “detainee.”

(2) On or about December 17, 1989, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA spoke at an ICP event and said that Israel responded to one language, the language of violence, death, blood and killing, and that would be the language their Jihad was going to adopt.

(3) On or about December 22, 1989, in Chicago, Illinois, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, and one Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve attended the Second Annual ICP Conference. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA was introduced as the Imam of the Al-Qassam Mosque in the Gaza Strip and the spiritual leader of the PIJ.

(4) In or about December 28, 1990, in Chicago, Illinois, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN , RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA attended the Third Annual ICP Conference.

(5) On or about April 7, 1991, in Cleveland, Ohio, Unindicted Co-Conspirator One introduced SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN as the head of the Islamic Committee for Palestine [ICP], which was described as the active arm of the Islamic Jihad Movement in Palestine [PIJ], in North America. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One said the PIJ was referred to as the ICP for security reasons. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN spoke and praised the Intifada, and praised individuals who had escaped from a prison in 1987 with the help of the PIJ and then killed many people. (This terrorist act is also referred to as the Battle of Al-Shujaiya.) SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN further mentioned the Gulf War, and questioned why they stopped the protests against it. He then said they should continue the protests, continue to damn America, continue to damn Israel, and continue to damn the allies of America and Israel until death. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also said that going to the Holy Land for Muslims was not a matter of going for a visit or tourism; rather, it was a matter of going for Jihad.

(6) On or about April 7, 1991, in Cleveland, Ohio, Unindicted Co-Conspirator One spoke after the speech of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One requested that those people attending donate money and said the money was going to the PIJ and the Islamic Jihad movement would continue to spread from village to village. He said that there was no logic but the logic of Jihad. The way to success was clear, the rifles must be raised in one direction, the chest of the enemy, and then advised the crowd that the enemy was in the desert of Kuwait and that coalition forces were going to kill their babies in Iraq. Further, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT criticized Israel for deporting Dr. Fathi Shiqaqi, and described him as a Muslim thinker and freedom fighter. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said Jews were damned; that Allah had made them monkeys and swine and damned them in this world and in the afterworld.

(8) On or about October 11, 1991, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT concealed, in the section of an INS document requiring applicants to disclose memberships and organizations to which the applicant belonged, that he was a member and leader of the PIJ in the Chicago, Illinois area.

(17) On or about December 25, 1992, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, in Chicago, Illinois, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH attended the Fifth Annual ICP Conference. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH spoke and said the enemies were the United States, the Zionists and the Arab governments. He said that Muslims should not be defensive or apologize against charges including charges of terrorism, that Jihad required Muslims to terrorize, devastate, humiliate and degrade enemies, because they were enemies of Allah and that the Koran instructed Muslims to fight and kill those people.

(18) On or about June 1, 1993, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN wrote a $5,000.00 check from an account he had at USF Federal Credit Union to his NCNB account. He then caused four separate wire transfers of $2,000.00 each to his account at Bank Leumi in Tel Aviv, Israel.

(19) On June 3, 1993, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN caused four wire transfers of $1,944.00 each from his account at Bank Leumi to accounts at Mercantile Discount Bank in Umm El Fahem (West Bank), Israel in the names of: Zahera Agbarya, Rokayah Agbarya, Mostafa Agbarya and Bushra Suleiman, all of whom were spouses or other relatives of recently convicted PIJ terrorists serving sentences in Israeli jails for their participation in a terrorist attack in or around mid-February, 1992, in which they murdered three Israelis.

(24) On or about January 11, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from a co-conspirator which addressed the status of the PIJ in the Occupied Territory and indicated that the old financial rules of the PIJ would continue to be followed until SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN got other PIJ members together and changed them.

(25) On or about January 12, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Fathi Shiqaqi in Damascus, Syria and requesting that Fathi Shiqaqi invalidate the current PIJ financial rules and settle the financial difficulties of the PIJ by having the Shura Council meet regularly by phone. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also emphasized to Fathi Shiqaqi that the PIJ members overseas were having financial difficulties.

(26) On or about January 16, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB in which they discussed: (a) Fathi Shiqaqi; (b) a meeting held in Beirut, Lebanon; (c) infighting among PIJ members; (d) the third party (Iran) which participated in the meetings; and (e) as a consequence of the PIJ financial situation, whether "The Center" (WISE) at USF would be closed. When SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN inquired why "The Center" would be closed, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB indicated that he convinced the "third party" and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA not to authorize payments to Fathi Shiqaqi when he requested money.

(27) On or about January 16, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to PIJ members which suggested that the PIJ create an organization which would not have a stated terror agenda but would covertly work with the PIJ in the Occupied Territory. On the following day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, in which they referred to a facsimile from the previous day. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he had discussed the facsimile with other PIJ leaders and members and decided the PIJ did not need to create a nonviolent organization to duplicate the efforts of HAMAS.

(28) On or about January 16, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi which discussed the role of the PIJ finance committee in the distribution of funds.

(29) On or about January 17, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi, which discussed the relationship between PIJ and HAMAS and funding a spokesperson for the PIJ. On the following day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to an unknown number which responded to the facsimile received from Fathi Shiqaqi on January 17, 1994. The facsimile which SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent indicated that Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN did not feel the PIJ needed an official spokesperson in the Occupied Territory.

(30) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was overseas, in which they discussed the possible splitting of the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN emphasized that the financial situation needed to be taken care of for the sake of the PIJ members in the United States.

(31) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, who was overseas, in which they discussed the financial situation within the PIJ and the accounting for PIJ money which had been used to purchase homes. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN expressed concern about a PIJ split because he, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI had many years invested in the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said that, if needed, he could arrange for the distribution of monies within the Occupied Territories. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA said he had recently spoken with Fathi Shiqaqi about the PIJ paying salaries to RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then stated that Fathi Shiqaqi had sent RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH $50,000.00 in 1993. They also agreed the PIJ could afford to pay 400 martyrs' families $120.00 per month. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then discussed the whereabouts of nearly $2,000,000 in missing PIJ money. Finally, they discussed RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's statement that he (RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH) would be the best person to be in charge of PIJ finances.

(32) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, who was in Tampa, Florida, had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, who was in England, in which they discussed the dispute within the PIJ over money and the danger that the PIJ would splinter.

(33) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was overseas, in which MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB indicated that the proposal to have the PIJ expand into non-violent activities could not be done. They also discussed the financial split within the PIJ and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's attempt to round up support for a reorganization of the PIJ.

(34) On or about January 22, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi which urged respect for the PIJ Shura Council while they debated the approval of the financial reforms proposed by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN.

(35) On or about January 23, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI in England which discussed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's proposed financial reform project for the PIJ, which proposed: (a) the creation of a three-person committee of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, and Fathi Shiqaqi to disburse all PIJ funds and conduct a general accounting of all PIJ assets within two months; (b) weekly meetings of the Shura Council in Syria which would send its minutes abroad; (c) conference calls with PIJ leaders throughout the world to vote when necessary; (d) a general conference of the PIJ membership to be held during the summer of 1994; and (e) open discussion of all aspects of PIJ business among the PIJ members at the conference. Later that day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent this facsimile to the Middle East.

(36) On or about January 23, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England in which they discussed: (a) that Fathi Shiqaqi did not want Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve on the PIJ finance committee; (b) that RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH did not want to be on the finance committee; (c) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN did not want the burden of the PIJ finance committee if the only other member was Fathi Shiqaqi; and (d) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN did not want MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB on the finance committee. They also stated that Fathi Shiqaqi, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB owned several homes which belonged to the PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN indicated that his initial efforts would be to account for the PIJ money in these homes. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN questioned BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI whether the PIJ had stores of gold and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI replied that they did not; however, they had previously brought gold bullion into Jordan. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI disagreed to the extent Iran needed to be notified of the results of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial audit of the PIJ. Finally, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said it would take three to four weeks to make the finance committee operational.

(37) On or about January 24, 1994, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA called Unindicted Co-Conspirator Two at SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's home, who then arranged a three-way call with SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, who was overseas, and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN discussed several subjects: (a) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's general support for SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's proposed financial reforms; (b) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's recommendation to create a Provisional Command of five men in place of the Shura Council to manage the PIJ including its finances, until a general conference was convened; (c) ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's suggestion that the Provisional Command members include Fathi Shiqaqi, Abu Tarek Ziyad, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, Sheik Sayyed and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN disagreed with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's suggestion because Sheik Sayyed was not a member of the Shura Council. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN recommended, instead, that Sheik Sayyed be replaced by BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI. Moreover, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he was not in favor of replacing the Shura Council with the command committee unless the existing Shura Council agreed. Finally, ABD AL AZIZ

AWDA said the Iranians had intervened in the PIJ because of its financial difficulties.

(38) On or about January 25, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to PIJ members requesting that the PIJ members vote "yes," "no," or "abstain from voting" regarding his three-part financial reform proposal. On the same day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile at his home from RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH indicating that RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH had abstained from voting on SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal.

(39) On or about January 27, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Abul Abed, which said that Abul Abed, Issam, Hamed and Abu Tareq all supported SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal. They also reaffirmed their support for Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve's participation on the finance committee.

(40) On or about January 27, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile which proposed to end the bickering within the PIJ that had evolved because of the Beirut meeting. The facsimile mentioned disagreements within the PIJ and how they had affected the situation within the Occupied Territories. The facsimile further directed that all the PIJ monies were to be turned over to the Treasurer of the PIJ, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who would then transfer the money to an account in the names of SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Fathi Shiqaqi.

(41) On or about January 30, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with the Treasurer of the PIJ, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was overseas, in which they discussed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal. MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB indicated he would not support SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal and said he would put $10,000,000.00 into Fathi Shiqaqi's care. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN became upset and told MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB not to use numbers or names over the telephone.

(42) On or about January 31, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England, in which they discussed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI said MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB had abstained from voting and others in the "North" did not like it. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he wanted to centralize control of all PIJ funds into a committee. They agreed that within a year the PIJ would begin working with other organizations and, therefore, they needed to negotiate a solution with HAMAS.

(43) On February 3, 1994, co-conspirators caused a facsimile to be sent from WISE to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN indicating: (a) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal had carried by a vote of eight to two; (b) that the previous agreement made in Beirut was now annulled; (c) that Iran was informed of the new arrangements; (d) that within three weeks, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN would open accounts for PIJ funds; (e) that Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve would send financial details within two weeks; (f) that all proposed budgets for 1994 must be sent to the committee within a month; (g) that there was to be an accounting of all PIJ funds and properties within a month; (h) that Fathi Shiqaqi would hold weekly meetings and send a weekly summary to PIJ members abroad; and (i) that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN would arrange for phone conferences every two weeks for members of the Shura Council to vote and discuss resolutions. On the following day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile containing an edited version of the facsimile he had received from WISE the day before. The revised facsimile said it was issued by the secretary of the Shura Council.

(44) On or about February 4, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, in which BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI stated he had not yet received the facsimile from SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would send it to BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI later. They also discussed individuals who distributed money for the PIJ.

(45) On February 4, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Abu Jihad, describing the decision of the PIJ Shura Council to adopt SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's financial reform proposal and declaring an annulment of the Beirut Agreement and the three-person committee it had created.

(46) On February 7, 1994, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve caused a wire transfer in the amount of $102,872.00 to be sent to MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, the PIJ Treasurer, at Arab Bank, the Riad Al Sulh Branch, Beirut, Lebanon.

(47) On or about February 7, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi about a meeting Fathi Shiqaqi recently attended in Iran regarding PIJ finances. Fathi Shiqaqi said the PIJ would not back down from their position.

(48) On February 9, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile addressed to Ziyad Nakhleh from Abu Jihad. The facsimile addressed the implementation of the new PIJ financial reforms, suggesting that they delay turning over all PIJ assets to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN for three months. Later that day, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH in which they discussed the facsimile received earlier that day recommending a delay in the implementation of the financial reforms proposed by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN agreed that a tough response was necessary in order to send a clear message to the PIJ members and Iran. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN agreed to send a copy of his response to RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH for comment before disseminating it. Shortly thereafter, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Abu Jihad, which said the Beirut Agreement was unconstitutional and there would be no postponement of the new PIJ financial reforms. It also reaffirmed that Iran was a strategic partner of the PIJ and was signed, "Your Brother, The Secretary". SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then had a telephone conversation with Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, in which they discussed PIJ members who were attempting to delay the new financial reforms, and they said those members should be dealt with strongly.

(49) On or about February 9, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH in which they discussed BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI's suggestion that an appropriate response should not include confronting the Iranians and telling them strongly that disbursement of PIJ funds was none of their business. Rather, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI wanted the PIJ to save that as a final position. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI was worried that PIJ members would succumb to Iranian pressure because everyone in the PIJ needed money. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN discussed strategies, one of which was to borrow $250,000.00 to $500,000.00 from HAMAS for two or three months.

(50) On or about February 10, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was overseas. MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB opposed the new PIJ reforms and told SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN that the reforms were enacted to help Fathi Shiqaqi. Later, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH. RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH discussed a conversation he recently had with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, in which they discussed that MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB needed money for his region.

(51) On or about February 12, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFLI who was in England. They discussed: (a) having a general meeting of the PIJ Shura Council; (b) Fathi Shiqaqi; (c) and the problems they were having with Abu Jihad and others who did not support the new PIJ financial changes.

(52) On February 13, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from WISE of a newspaper article in which the Prime Minister of Israel accused the PIJ of trying to destroy the Oslo Peace Accord between Israel and the Palestine Liberation Organization (PLO). The article also reported a recent murder committed by the PIJ.

(53) On or about February 13, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with Abu Jihad, who was overseas, in which they discussed

Abu Jihad's rejection of the proposal contained in the facsimile he previously received from SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. Abu Jihad said the PIJ faced severe problems and no one, including SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, had joined him while he had been working with the Iranians to obtain support for the PIJ. Abu Jihad also said he did not believe the Shura Council could solve the problems within the PIJ or with Iran. Abu Jihad named MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB as one of the problems. Abu Jihad asked SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN what he was doing to retrieve the $350,000.00 from MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would deal with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB.

(54) On or about February 14, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England, in which they discussed the difficulty of obtaining money and whether they should try to borrow money. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI said money was so tight that PIJ members in England felt they would be better off dealing with HAMAS. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN expressed concern that Fathi Shiqaqi would make his own deal with Iran and because the financial situation was so desperate, the PIJ should try to raise money by selling several of the houses they owned. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would issue a memo for all PIJ members to surrender all PIJ assets. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI responded that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN should start with Fathi Shiqaqi and the rest of the membership would follow. Finally, they discussed whether they had a copy of the signature of MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB so SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN could use it to reopen a bank account.

(55) On February 17, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile which directed all PIJ members to: (a) count and report all PIJ money in their possession or in PIJ bank accounts; (b) count all loans to or from the PIJ; (c) report all real estate owned or purchased by the PIJ and state the purchase price and current value; and (d) report this information under oath.

(56) On February 17, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN sent a facsimile to Abu Jihad directing Abu Jihad to respond to the orders of the Shura Council. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN further advised Abu Jihad that a delegation from the Shura Council would be coming to visit him soon to ensure cooperation. This facsimile was signed, "The Secretary".

(57) On February 23, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN called Nations Bank in Tampa and inquired about reopening a joint account he previously held with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN falsely stated that MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB wanted to see a copy of his signature card and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he expected to receive some money into the account but when he was told the account could not be reopened, he requested the bank send MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB's signature card to aid him in opening a new account.

(58) On or about February 23, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England. They discussed financial reform in the PIJ and how they should deal with members who opposed the reforms. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI told SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN that $2,500,000.00 to 3,000,000.00 was the most money the PIJ ever had and SAMI

AMIN AL-ARIAN said he had never seen that sum on paper. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also mentioned he could not re-open an account he previously had with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB.

(59) On or about February 26, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with Abu Al-Abed, in which they discussed the PIJ financial situation. Abed suggested that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and another PIJ member travel to Iran for a meeting. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN replied that he would discuss scheduling with Fathi Shiqaqi.

(61) On March 6, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, which stated that a group of prominent PIJ members were going to tell Fathi Shiqaqi that they respected him and would not make changes in the PIJ financial controls until July.

(62) On or about March 6, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN engaged in a telephone conversation with Unindicted Co-Conspirator One in which SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN described returning from Chicago after raising $53,000.00, $25,000.00 of which was collected in cash. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also discussed the organization of a committee to raise funds and the status of "martyrs" families in the Occupied Territories. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Unindicted Co-Conspirator One spoke about someone returning from a fund-raising trip in the Sudan. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Unindicted Co-Conspirator One also discussed a scheme in which SAMI AMIN AL-

ARIAN would send a portion of the donations collected in Chicago to Unindicted Co-Conspirator One, who would arrange for the donations to be re-donated by a private individual, who would then take the donation as a tax deduction of 40%. Later the private individual would contribute a portion of the fraudulent tax deduction to SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, thereby increasing the overall amount of the donations. Unindicted Co-Conspirator One and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN discussed how the private individuals who would participate in the scheme all made over $200,000.00 a year and were in the 40% tax bracket.

(63) On or about March 6, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile addressed to Fathi Shiqaqi which stated that fifty members of the PIJ held a meeting and decided to send a letter of allegiance to Fathi Shiqaqi.

(64) On or about March 8, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN spoke with an individual located in the United States and unsuccessfully attempted to enlist the individual in a fund-raiser and money laundering scheme similar to that discussed with Unindicted Co-Conspirator One two days earlier.

(65) On or about March 9, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, in which they discussed a March 6, 1994 facsimile regarding a group within the PIJ wanting to maintain the status quo for several months. They disagreed about which PIJ members should be on the financial committee. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said it would be better to go to HAMAS for money than agree to MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB's proposal.

(66) On or about March 12, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi which stated that the PIJ did not want to press financial reforms on its members at that time. The facsimile also directed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN to travel within a week for a meeting of the Shura Council because the Iranians were ready to offer immediate financial assistance.

(67) On or about March 15, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with Abu Muhanid, who was overseas. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN agreed to send Muhanid a letter which would falsely state that Muhanid worked at "Inquiry" magazine as a correspondent and earned $1,500.00 per month.

(68) On or about March 16, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi, urging SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN to prepare to travel through Cyprus if necessary. Fathi Shiqaqi also stated that PIJ money unfortunately was still being deposited into the accounts of ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and Fathi Shiqaqi before being distributed and this delayed the money reaching the Occupied Territories. Approximately two hours after receiving the facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN called RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and discussed it. They both agreed a PIJ conference was necessary; however, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH desired to wait until their school terms were finished to convene the conference.

(69) On or about March 17, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile addressed to RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, which contained personal information regarding MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB to enable Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, to assist MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB in obtaining a fraudulent visa for Canada.

(70) On or about March 20, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN arranged a three-way telephone conference between himself, Muafaq, and MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB in Syria. Muafaq told MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB he would send via facsimile the names of people in the Occupied Territories who needed financial support. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB discussed paying these people from a PIJ account. They then discussed BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI's arrival to the United States; however, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN stated that BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI would not work at "the Center" at USF.

They discussed methods of communications and the advantages of bank accounts versus having money hand delivered. MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB told Muafaq to expect $5,000.00, and directed that this money was to be spent on activities, not aid. Later in the conversation, MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB again reiterated that the funds were for activity and not to give as aid to needy people. At the conclusion of the conversation, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN told MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB and Muafaq not to use him again for three-way calls.

(74) On or about March 27, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with MUHAMMED TASIR HASSAN AL-KHATIB, who was in Syria, in which they discussed SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's concerns about utilizing his phone for three-way calls. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN remarked that HAMAS had utilized three-way calls in the past and encountered problems as a result. They also discussed PIJ members who were adversely affecting their ability to get money into the Occupied Territories.

(75) On or about April 2, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN received a facsimile from Fathi Shiqaqi stating Fathi Shiqaqi was willing to meet anywhere; however, several other PIJ members would not be able to travel because of problems with their travel documents.

(76) On or about April 3, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI who was in England, in which they discussed the scheduling of a PIJ conference and that one of the participants did not possess the documents to allow him to attend at a particular location. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI indicated that the financial situation at his "Center" in England was very bad and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he would travel through England on the way to the conference and try to solve the financial problems. They then discussed the financial problems of Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve and RAMADAN

ABDULLAH SHALLAH. BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI suggested that SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN meet with PIJ members in the "North" regarding the salaries of RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve and their financial situation.

(77) On or about April 3, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH in which they discussed the upcoming PIJ conference and the problems other PIJ members would have entering the country. They then discussed disagreements between HAMAS and FATAH.

(78) On or about April 4, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve had a telephone conversation about providing financial assistance to incoming students and the future of WISE and ICP. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN mentioned that it was possible he might be receiving $50,000.00 for WISE from sources in the Sudan. Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve advised SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN not to mention that to anyone.

(79) On or about April 4, 1994, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve spoke by telephone about Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve's Egyptian passport. They discussed the possibility it could be altered so that the date read "1993" instead of "1990," and whether Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve should tell Egyptian authorities that he lost his passport.

(80) On or about April 6, 1994, coconspirators associated with the PIJ murdered nine persons and injured approximately fifty in a suicide car bombing of a bus in the vicinity of Afula, Israel.

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he could find someone to testify to the non-violent activities of HAMAS but could not find someone to so testify regarding the other Islamic movements.

(225) On or about August 18, 2000, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN had a telephone conversation with BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI in which they discussed Ziyad Abu Amr's reluctance to assist in Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve's INS hearing. HATIM NAJI FARIZ then complained that people in Florida were stingier than those in Chicago; although Floridians have good incomes, they are suspicious about who receives the funds. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA quickly responded that the funds were for "the poor people," and asked HATIM NAJI FARIZ if the amount he sent last time was $4,500.00 or $4,700.00" HATIM NAJI FARIZ said he wasn't sure but thought it was $4,000.00.

the news about the suicide bombing. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN said he had and sarcastically said that HATIM NAJI FARIZ seemed upset or sad about it. HATIM NAJI FARIZ laughed and repeated the story of how he had heard about it earlier from GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT.

GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT asked about the reaction of the community to the June 5, 2002 terrorist bombing. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said the situation was bad and that the media kept connecting the "incident" to the University of South Florida, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve. GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT said that it was well organized and no one predicted it. HATIM NAJI FARIZ responded that the previous incident victimized Fathi Shiqaqi and this might get SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said that "they" could not make the bomb without all the ingredients. HATIM NAJI FARIZ then stated, "God protect them" and added that someone's first cousin was the one who made the bomb. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said that the group which made the bomb used to belong to the Popular Front for Liberation of Palestine but later joined the PIJ. HATIM NAJI FARIZ and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT spoke about supporting Unindicted Co-Conspirator Eleven and stated that they had transferred "seven" and "five" through ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and that ABD AL AZIZ

AWDA had received the transfers smoothly.

HATIM NAJI FARIZ asked GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT if he dealt with more than one bank and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT said he did not. Later on the same day, HATIM NAJI FARIZ notified SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN that the banking account of GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT was being examined. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN refused to discuss it on the phone and said he would stop by in the evening to speak with HATIM NAJI FARIZ about it.

(243) On or about August 17, 2002, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH, who were both in the Middle District of Florida, received a facsimile from outside the State of Florida. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said he had spoken to "Abu Yousef" and hoped to cut a check by the end of the day.

(246) On or about September 6, 2002, HATIM NAJI FARIZ had a telephone conversation with three individuals, SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, and an employee of IAF. HATIM NAJI FARIZ and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH spoke about an updated donor list. HATIM NAJI FARIZ discussed an American Muslim who had worked with Global Relief in Bridgeview, Illinois (GRF) and was applying for a job at IAF. HATIM NAJI FARIZ stated that since this guy was involved with GRF, it was better for IAF not to consider his application so they would not arouse the suspicions of law enforcement. HATIM NAJI FARIZ continued that the current situation was not helping and IAF was in excellent standing now and there was no need to have any questions on it as the scrutiny from the local community was enough. HATIM NAJI

FARIZ and SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN then spoke about collecting donations from HATIM NAJI FARIZ's employer.

(247) On or about September 13, 2002, HATIM NAJI FARIZ, who was in the Middle District of Florida, had a telephone conversation with GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT, who was outside the State of Florida. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said he had recently spoken with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA who thanked him for the money, although it was less than last year. GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT said ABD AL AZIZ AWDA must realize that things had changed since last year. HATIM NAJI FARIZ also said that ABD AL AZIZ AWDA told him that RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was in the hospital because of depression; however, it was kept quiet for security reasons. They then discussed that three PIJ members had recently been killed.

(249) On or about September 24, 2002, the wife of Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve, had a telephone conversation with HATIM NAJI FARIZ. Fedaa Al-Najjar blamed her husband's treatment on his Palestinian heritage. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said that was one reason; however, the main reason was Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve's association with terrorist organizations. He then instructed the wife of Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve to not discuss this further. HATIM NAJI FARIZ said the government does not know the extent of Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve's association with these groups. HATIM NAJI FARIZ explained that they will continue to claim other reasons for their treatment, mainly being Palestinians, Muslims who are occupied and ousted from their countries.

(252) On or about October 20, 2002, co-conspirators associated with the PIJ murdered fourteen people and wounded approximately fifty in a suicide car bombing of a bus at the Karkur Station on Route No. 65 between Afula, Israel and Hadera, Israel.

(253) On or about November 10, 2002, HATIM NAJI FARIZ, who was in the Middle District of Florida, had a telephone conversation with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, who was outside the State of Florida. They discussed a variety of issues about fund-raising and distributing money. HATIM NAJI FARIZ and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA discussed HATIM NAJI FARIZ sending ABD AL AZIZ AWDA money; however, HATIM NAJI FARIZ was concerned that the name of ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's organization was a security concern in the United States. As a result, HATIM NAJI FARIZ instructed ABD AL AZIZ AWDA to change its name and to be wary of informants and to compartmentalize information. HATIM NAJI FARIZ then said he had begun to use a shell organization he had established but not used for several years. ABD AL AZIZ AWDA then offered to give HATIM NAJI FARIZ the bank account number of his society; however, HATIM NAJI FARIZ refused and said he would send the money via the normal transfer.

(Conspiracy to Provide Material Support)

A. Introduction

1. Part A of Count One of the Indictment is incorporated by reference and re-alleged herein.

B. Agreement

2. From in or about 1988, the exact date being unknown to the Grand Jury, and continuing to the date of this Indictment, in the Middle District of Florida and elsewhere subject to the jurisdiction of the United States, the defendants,

SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN,
a/k/a "Amin,"

GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT,
a/k/a "Abu Fadi,"

and,
HATIM NAJI FARIZ,
a/k/a "Abu Obayada,"
a/k/a "Abu Obaida", did knowingly conspire with each other and with persons known and unknown to the Grand Jury, to knowingly provide material support and resources, as that term is defined in Title 18, United States Code, Section 2339A(b), to a designated foreign terrorist organization, namely, the Palestinian Islamic Jihad (PIJ), all in violation of Title 18, United States Code, Section 2339B.

C. Means and Methods of the Conspiracy

3. To accomplish some of the purposes of the conspiracy, the defendants and others known and unknown to the Grand Jury, used, among others, the following means and methods:

(a) The members of the conspiracy would and did use the WISE, ICP, and IAF offices as the North American base of support for the PIJ and to raise funds and provide support for the PIJ and their operatives in the Middle East, in order to assist its engagement in, and promotion of, violent attacks designed to thwart the Middle East Peace Process.

(b) The members of the conspiracy would and did work with PIJ and its leaders in coordinating its activities with HAMAS, including the possibility of HAMAS and PIJ reconciling their differences and engaging in joint terrorism operations.

(c) Beginning no later than 1988, the defendants were involved in PIJ, its financial operations and its ongoing violent efforts against the State of Israel. Operating out of the WISE, ICP and IAF offices, co-conspirators SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve and SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH would and did communicate through telephone calls and facsimiles with each other, other co-defendants, and other PIJ leaders including members of the PIJ Shura Council, and former PIJ Secretary General Fathi Shiqaqi (and succeeding Secretary General RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH), providing extensive advice on PIJ organization, structure, personnel and financing, and the relationship between PIJ and other violent Palestinian organizations.

(d) In their communications with each other and with other people, the defendants frequently relied on code words. For instance, they referred to PIJ as "the family," its operatives as "the youth" and the "brothers," HAMAS as "the club," Fathi Shiqaqi as "the Man," the West Bank and Gaza as "the inside" or the "the interior," and Iran as "the North."

(e) Defendants SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI's, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA's and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's advice and assistance to PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi would and did include: (1) recommendations on financial issues that needed to be resolved by the PIJ "Shura Council;" (2) the identification of infighting within PIJ and HAMAS and the need to resolve their differences; and (3) raising funds within the United States for PIJ's use and benefit.

(f) SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN provided assistance to PIJ activists who sought to enter the United States, including BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, giving travel and immigration advice that involved false statements and fraudulent manipulation of United States immigration laws.

(g) Defendants SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI, ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH would and did communicate with each other, other co-defendants, and other known and unknown individuals to discuss the arrest of PIJ members, Fathi Shiqaqi's leadership decisions, how PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi were a source of funds for WISE and ICP, the particular roles of the defendants within PIJ, whether HAMAS could be a source of funds for PIJ, and the possibility of PIJ and HAMAS joining forces.

(h) At the WISE and ICP offices, the defendants would and did receive lists of names and bank account numbers of surviving family members of PIJ "martyrs" and detainees, spoke to each other about directions they had received from Fathi Shiqaqi and about particular financial transactions. They also received and circulated facsimiles of PIJ "Military Reports," which claimed responsibility for violent attacks, threatened the State of Israel, decried the arrests of PIJ members by the Palestinian Authority, and vowed to gut the Oslo Peace Accord.

(i) The defendants' involvement in PIJ and HAMAS from 1994 forward would and did include logistical assistance in terrorist activities. From the United States, the defendants would and did communicate with each other and with other PIJ operatives about specific PIJ and HAMAS terrorist attacks shortly after they occurred, detailing who committed them, who organized them, what types of explosives were used, the total cost of the operations, and who had been arrested. They would and did raise and provide financial assistance to the surviving family members of the "martyrs" and detainees.

(j) On January 25, 1995, the President issued Executive Order 12947, which declared a national state of emergency, designated certain organizations and individuals as threats to the Middle East Process and Specially Designated Terrorists, and barred all financial transactions with them. Among the groups/individuals designated as Specially Designated Terrorists were HAMAS, PIJ, Fathi Shiqaqi and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA. As a result, it became illegal for persons within the United States to engage in financial transactions with these designated terrorists and terrorist groups.

(k) Defendant RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH received a facsimile of a document describing Executive Order 12947 on January 25, 1995. On or about February 6, 1995, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN engaged in a telephone discussion during which he discussed the Executive Order and stated that it applied to people such as "Fathi Shiqaqi," and operations outside the United States, not inside.

(l) Notwithstanding this prohibition and the defendants' awareness of it, the defendants would and did continue to provide services and support to HAMAS, PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi, and would and did continue to receive and send communications about Palestinian terrorism. During the spring of 1995, the defendants received facsimiles of articles glorifying attacks that claimed the lives of Israelis and demanding the release of HAMAS and PIJ terrorists being held in Palestinian prisons, they advised Fathi Shiqaqi and others about how to engage in effective propaganda while avoiding the scrutiny of United States and European law enforcement, and they communicated with persons in Iran and Syria about the possibility of procuring encrypted communications equipment to facilitate information sharing. They also continued to discuss PIJ recruitment, the interrelationship between PIJ and HAMAS and the possibility of joining forces.

(m) During this period, in the face of increasing public scrutiny, the defendants and co-conspirators would and did rally around SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH to protect their identity as high-ranking members of PIJ and to protect the PIJ operation at WISE and ICP. To accomplish this, they spoke in code and expressed the need to be security conscious when speaking by phone. They also stated their concerns with being discovered by United States law enforcement. In one conversation, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH told Fathi Shiqaqi that he had spoken with SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN about purchasing telephones, but that they were concerned about records being made of such transactions. The defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN continued to be involved in PIJ financial matters, although RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH and Fathi Shiqaqi discussed certain problems caused by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's public statements and the need for him to be more circumspect.

(n) Between May and October, 1995, the defendants would and did continue to communicate with and provide support to PIJ and Fathi Shiqaqi, although they tended to be more cautious and use coded language when speaking by telephone. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI would and did speak to each other in coded language about financial matters, referring to the receipt of "25," that "ten" was for someone else and "15" was promised. Operating out of the WISE/ICP offices, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH continued the defendants' prominent role in PIJ propaganda efforts, speaking to BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI by phone about the need to respond to news articles critical of PIJ.

(o) On October 26, 1995, Fathi Shiqaqi was killed in Malta. Shortly thereafter, defendant RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, who had recently left his employment at WISE in Tampa and moved to Damascus, Syria, succeeded Fathi Shiqaqi as the Secretary General of PIJ.

(p) On November 27, 1995, RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was designated by the United States as a Specially Designated Terrorist under Executive Order 12947.

(q) In the aftermath of Fathi Shiqaqi's death and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's ascension to Secretary General of PIJ, the defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, in an effort to conceal his affiliation with PIJ, falsely denied that he was aware of RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH's association with, or activities on behalf of, PIJ while RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was employed by WISE and ICP. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN further falsely stated that he only knew RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH as Ramadan Abdullah and that RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH was only engaged as a legitimate scholar while working at WISE and ICP.

(r) As a result of the negative publicity surrounding WISE, the defendant SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN reorganized the manner in which the defendants interacted with PIJ and RAMADAN ABDULLAH SHALLAH, although they did not cease their activities, including their logistical support for terrorism. The defendants would and did continue to communicate in coded language and explicitly referred to their need to be careful when communicating with one another.

(s) Throughout the remainder of the 1990's to the present, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH, HATIM NAJI FARIZ, GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT, BASHIR MUSA MOHAMMED NAFI and others would and did continue to engage in PIJ fund-raising and support activities in a manner designed to conceal the nature of what they were doing and the source and recipients of the support. Defendant SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH, whose graduate school education was sponsored by SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN, began to take on public appearance and fund-raising responsibilities on SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN's behalf. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN gave specific instructions to SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH on what meetings to attend and where to travel, and provided him money for this purpose.

(t) On October 7, 1997, the Secretary of State, pursuant to the Antiterrorism and Effective Death Penalty Act of 1996, Title 18, United States Code, Section 219, designated PIJ and HAMAS as "foreign terrorist organizations." As a result of this designation, it became illegal for any person within the United States or subject to its jurisdiction to provide material support or resources to PIJ and HAMAS.

(u) Notwithstanding this third announced legal prohibition against providing assistance to designated terrorist organizations and individuals, the defendants' would and did continue their activities in support of PIJ. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN continued in his role as an advisor to PIJ, editing a Charter of the PIJ in 2000 and forwarding it to others. Following this designation, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN and others would and did continue with fund-raising activities and their efforts to conceal what they were doing.

(v) During this period, in an effort to take away attention from himself, SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN increasingly relied on SAMEEH HAMMOUDEH, HATIM NAJI FARIZ and GHASSAN ZAYED BALLUT and others to continue the fund-raising activity he had conducted himself in the past. SAMI AMIN AL-ARIAN also relied on other members of the conspiracy to carry out the logistical efforts necessary to transfer PIJ funds in and out of the United States. The defendants would and did provide financial support and advice to fellow PIJ member Unindicted Co-Conspirator Twelve to conceal his association with PIJ during deportation proceedings. Throughout 2002, HATIM NAJI FARIZ spoke by telephone with ABD AL AZIZ AWDA, who was overseas, about transfers of funds to ABD AL AZIZ AWDA to be used for PIJ.

2. The President of the United States, by virtue of the International Emergency Economic Powers Act ("IEEPA") (Title 50, United States Code, Section 1701 et seq.), was empowered to deal with unusual or extraordinary threats to the national security and foreign policy of the United States. The President deals with unusual or extraordinary threats through Executive Orders which have the force and effect of law. A violation of an Executive Order is a criminal act.

- (a) dealing in the property or interests in property of a Specially Designated Terrorist, including the making or receiving of any contributions of funds, goods, services to or for the benefit of a Specially Designated Terrorist;

- (c) any transaction for the purpose of, or which has the effect of, evading or avoiding, or which facilitates the evasion or avoidance of the Terrorism Sanctions Regulations; and
- (d) any conspiracy formed for the purpose of engaging in a prohibited transaction.

7. On January 25, 1995, pursuant to Executive Order 12947, the Department of Treasury, Office of Foreign Assets Control, designated the Palestinian Islamic Jihad as a Specially Designated Terrorist Organization, and ABD AL AZIZ AWDA and Fathi

Shaqaqi (referred to throughout this Indictment as "Fathi Shiqaqi") as Specially Designated Terrorists.

A. No.
