INTRODUCTION (U)

Following the September 11, 2001, terrorist attack on the United States, the Department of Justice carried out a general review of existing guidelines and procedures relating to national security and criminal matters. These Guidelines reflect the result of that review. (U)

These Guidelines generally authorize investigation by the FBI of threats to the national security of the United States; investigative assistance by the FBI to state, local, and foreign governments in relation to matters affecting the national security; the collection of foreign intelligence by the FBI; the production of strategic analysis by the FBI; and the retention and dissemination of information resulting from the foregoing activities. This includes guidance for the activities of the FBI pursuant to Executive Order 12333, "United States Intelligence Activities" (Dec. 4, 1981). (U)

The general objective of these Guidelines is the full utilization of all authorities and investigative techniques, consistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States, so as to protect the United States and its people from terrorism and other threats to the national security. As Executive Order 12333 provides, "[t]imely and accurate information about the activities, capabilities, plans, and intentions of foreign powers, organizations, and persons and their agents, is essential to the national security of the United States," and "[a]ll reasonable and lawful means must be used to ensure that the United States will receive the best intelligence available." At the same time, intelligence gathering activities must be carried out in a "responsible manner that is consistent with the Constitution and applicable law," and information concerning United States persons may be collected, retained, and disseminated "only in accordance with procedures . . . approved by the Attorney General." Executive Order 12333, Preamble, §§ 2.1, 2.3. These guidelines should be implemented and interpreted so as to realize as fully as possible the critical objectives of the Executive Order. (U)

The activities of the FBI under these Guidelines are part of the overall response of the United States to threats to the national security, which includes cooperative efforts and sharing of information with other agencies, including other entities in the Intelligence Community and the Department of Homeland Security. The overriding priority in these efforts is preventing, preempting, and disrupting terrorist threats to the United States. In some cases, this priority will dictate the provision of information to other agencies even where doing so may affect criminal prosecutions or ongoing law enforcement or intelligence operations. To the greatest extent possible that is consistent with this overriding priority, the FBI shall also act in a manner to protect other significant interests, including the protection of intelligence and sensitive law enforcement sources and methods, other classified information, and sensitive operational and prosecutorial information. (U)

A. NATIONAL SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS (U)

These Guidelines authorize the investigation by the FBI of threats to the national security. Matters constituting threats to the national security, including international terrorism and espionage, are identified in Part I.A1. Parts II and V of the Guidelines contain the specific provisions governing the conduct of investigations of these threats. (U)

The investigations authorized by these Guidelines serve to protect the national security by providing the basis for, and informing decisions concerning, a variety of measures to deal with threats to the national security. These measures may include, for example, recruitment of double agents and other assets; excluding or removing persons involved in terrorism or espionage from the United States; freezing assets of organizations that engage in or support terrorism; securing targets of terrorism or espionage; providing threat information and warnings to other federal agencies and officials, state and local governments, and private entities; diplomatic or military actions; and actions by other intelligence agencies to counter international terrorism or other national security threats. In addition, the matters identified by these Guidelines as threats to the national security, including international terrorism and espionage, almost invariably involve possible violations of criminal statutes. Detecting, solving, and preventing these crimes - and in many cases, arresting and prosecuting the perpetrators - are crucial objectives of national security investigations under these Guidelines. Thus, these investigations are usually both "counterintelligence" investigations and "criminal" investigations. (U)

The authority to conduct national security investigations under these Guidelines does not supplant or limit the authority to carry out activities under other Attorney General guidelines or pursuant to other lawful authorities of the FBI. Thus, matters within the scope of these Guidelines, such as crimes involved in international terrorism and the activities of groups and organizations that aim to commit such crimes, may also be investigated under the guidelines for general crimes investigations and criminal intelligence investigations. See the Attorney General's Guidelines on General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise and Terrorism Enterprise Investigations, Part II (general crimes investigations) and Part III.B (terrorism enterprise investigations). Likewise, the authorization of extraterritorial activities under Part II.E of these Guidelines overlaps at a practical level with other guidelines the Attorney General has issued for extraterritorial criminal investigations and use of extraterritorial criminal informants. The requirements under these Guidelines to notify FBI Headquarters and other Department of Justice components and officials concerning the initiation and progress of investigations are intended in part to ensure that activities pursuant to these Guidelines are fully coordinated with investigations and activities under other authorities of the FBI. (U)

Part II of these Guidelines authorizes three levels of investigative activity in national security investigations: (1) threat assessments, (2) preliminary investigations, and (3) full investigations: (U)

- (1) Threat assessments. To carry out its central mission of preventing the commission of terrorist acts against the United States and its people, the FBI must proactively draw on available sources of information to identify terrorist threats and activities. It cannot be content to wait for leads to come in through the actions of others, but rather must be vigilant in detecting terrorist activities to the full extent permitted by law, with an eye towards early intervention and prevention of acts of terrorism before they occur. (U)

Part II.A of these Guidelines accordingly authorizes the proactive collection of information concerning threats to the national security, including information on individuals, groups, and organizations of possible investigative interest, and information on possible targets of international terrorist activities or other national security threats (such as infrastructure and computer systems vulnerabilities). This is comparable to the authorization under Part VI of the Attorney General's Guidelines on General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise and Terrorism Enterprise Investigations to engage in information collection for counterterrorism or other law enforcement purposes without any more specific investigative predication. The particular methods allowed in threat assessments are relatively non-intrusive investigative techniques, including obtaining publicly available information, accessing information available within the FBI or Department of Justice, requesting information from other government entities, using online informational resources and services, interviewing previously established assets, non-pretexual interviews and requests for information from members of the public and private entities, and accepting information voluntarily provided by governmental or private entities. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

In addition to allowing proactive information collection for national security purposes, the authority to conduct threat assessments may be used in cases in which information or an allegation concerning possible terrorist (or other national security-threatening) activity by an individual, group, or organization is received, and the matter can be checked out promptly through the relatively non-intrusive techniques authorized in threat assessments. This can avoid the need to open a formal preliminary or full investigation, if the threat assessment indicates that further investigation is not warranted. In this function, threat assessments under these Guidelines are comparable to the checking of initial leads in ordinary criminal investigations. See the Attorney General's Guidelines on General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise and Terrorism Enterprise Investigations, Subpart A of the Introduction. (U)

- (2) Preliminary investigations. Preliminary investigations are authorized, generally speaking, when there is information or an allegation indicating that a threat to the national security may exist.

Preliminary investigations may relate to individuals, groups, organizations, and possible criminal violations, as specified in Part II.B. ~~X~~ (U)

Since the legal predicate for mail opening, physical searches, and electronic surveillance that require a judicial order or warrant generally entails more substantial information or evidence than would be available outside of a full investigation, the Guidelines specify that these methods are not available in preliminary investigations. Otherwise, all lawful investigative techniques may be used in preliminary investigations. A non-exhaustive listing of such techniques, including related review or approval requirements, appears in Part V of these Guidelines. These include all the techniques that may be used in threat assessments; interviews and pretext interviews of the subject of the investigation and other persons; use of previously established assets and recruitment of new assets; physical, photographic, and video surveillance not requiring unconsented entry; mail covers; polygraph examinations; inquiry of law enforcement, intelligence, and security agencies of foreign governments; physical searches not requiring a judicial order or warrant; undercover operations and undisclosed participation in organizations; consensual monitoring of communications, including consensual computer monitoring; National Security Letters; and pen registers and trap and trace devices. ~~X~~ (U)

Preliminary investigations are limited in duration. They may initially be authorized for up to six months, subject to a possible six-month extension by the responsible field office. Extensions of preliminary investigations that continue beyond a year must be authorized by FBI Headquarters. ~~X~~ (U)

- (3) Full investigations. Full investigations are authorized, generally speaking, when there are specific and articulable facts giving reason to believe that a threat to the national security may exist. Like preliminary investigations, full investigations may relate to individuals, groups, organizations, and possible criminal violations, as specified in Part II.B. ~~X~~ (U)

All lawful investigative techniques may be used in full investigations. These include, in addition to the techniques authorized in threat assessments and preliminary investigations, nonconsensual mail opening, physical searches, and electronic surveillance that require judicial orders or warrants. ~~X~~ (U)

In investigating threats to the national security, the FBI may request information from foreign law enforcement, intelligence, and security agencies, and may, in certain circumstances, conduct operations outside of the United States. Part II.E of these Guidelines sets out conditions and approval requirements for extraterritorial activities. As provided in Part II.E, these activities require a request from or approval of the Director of Central Intelligence or a designee. This requirement ensures that extraterritorial activities under these Guidelines are properly coordinated with other agencies in the Intelligence Community, so that their authorities and capabilities are also brought to bear as appropriate to protect the national security, consistent with Executive Order 12333 or a successor order. ~~(U)~~ (U)

The FBI may also provide assistance to state and local governments, and to foreign law enforcement, intelligence, and security agencies, in investigations relating to threats to the national security. Part III of these Guidelines specifies standards and procedures for the provision of such assistance. (U)

B. FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE COLLECTION (U)

The FBI's functions pursuant to Executive Order 12333 §§ 1.6, 1.14, 2.3, and 2.4 include engaging in foreign intelligence collection and providing operational support for other components of the U.S. Intelligence Community. This role is frequently critical in collecting foreign intelligence within the United States because the authorized domestic activities of other intelligence agencies are more constrained than those of the FBI under applicable statutory law and Executive Order 12333. (U)

Part IV of these Guidelines provides standards and procedures for the provision of such assistance by the FBI to other federal intelligence agencies and the collection of foreign intelligence by the FBI. (U)

C. STRATEGIC ANALYSIS (U)

Executive Order 12333 § 1.14(d) states that the FBI shall "[p]roduce and disseminate foreign intelligence and counterintelligence." The Executive Order further provides, in § 1.1(a), that "[m]aximum emphasis should be given to fostering analytical competition among appropriate elements of the Intelligence Community." Given the magnitude and potential consequences of terrorist threats and other threats to the national security, it is imperative that the FBI develop and maintain a strong analytic capacity to identify, examine, assess, and appropriately disseminate information concerning terrorist threats and to produce and disseminate other analysis relating to national security matters. (U)

Part VI of these Guidelines accordingly authorizes the FBI to examine and analyze information to produce and disseminate foreign intelligence and counterintelligence. Part VI provides that the FBI may draw on information from any source permitted by law in carrying out this analytic function, and may supplement the information in its possession, for purposes of these analytic activities, through the use of the methods authorized in threat assessments, such as obtaining publicly available information and checking government records. (U)

D. RETENTION AND DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION (U)

Part VII of these Guidelines requires the maintenance of adequate records and information relating to investigations and other activities under these Guidelines, and provides standards for the sharing and dissemination of information obtained in such investigations and activities. (U)

Part VII includes, in Subpart B.2, provisions for sharing of information and consultation with other Department of Justice components, which reflect legal reforms and policies adopted by the Attorney General following the September 11, 2001, terrorist attack. Consistent with legal norms and standards of effective management, all relevant components, including the Criminal Division, relevant United States Attorneys' offices, and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review, must be fully informed about the nature, scope, and conduct of national security investigations and other activities under these Guidelines. The Attorney General can most effectively direct and control such investigations and activities only if all relevant Department of Justice components are able to offer advice and recommendations, both strategic and tactical, about their conduct and goals. The overriding need to protect the United States and its people from terrorism and other threats to the national security requires a full and free exchange of information and ideas. (U)

I. GENERAL AUTHORITIES AND PRINCIPLES (U)

A. GENERAL AUTHORITIES (U)

1. The FBI is authorized to conduct investigations to obtain information concerning or to protect against threats to the national security, including investigations of crimes involved in or related to threats to the national security, as provided in Parts II and V of these Guidelines. Threats to the national security are:
  - a. International terrorism.
  - b. Espionage and other intelligence activities, sabotage, or assassination, conducted by, for, or on behalf of foreign powers, organizations, or persons.
  - c. Foreign computer intrusions.
  - d. Other matters as determined by the Attorney General, consistent with Executive Order 12333 or a successor order. (U)

2. The FBI is authorized to assist state, local, and foreign governments as provided in Part III of these Guidelines. (U)
3. The FBI is authorized to collect foreign intelligence and to assist federal intelligence agencies as provided in Part IV of these Guidelines. (U)
4. The FBI is authorized to conduct strategic analysis as provided in Part VI of these Guidelines. (U)
5. The FBI is authorized to retain and disseminate information collected pursuant to these Guidelines as provided in Part VII of these Guidelines. (U)

B. USE OF AUTHORITIES AND METHODS (U)

1. Protection of National Security (U)

The FBI shall fully utilize the authorities provided and the methods authorized by these Guidelines to protect the national security of the United States. (U)

2. Choice of Methods (U)

The conduct of investigations and other activities authorized by these Guidelines may present choices between the use of information collection methods that are more or less intrusive, considering such factors as the effect on the privacy of individuals and potential damage to reputation. As Executive Order 12333 § 2.4 provides, "the least intrusive collection techniques feasible" are to be used in such situations. It is recognized, however, that the choice of techniques is a matter of judgment. The FBI shall not hesitate to use any lawful techniques consistent with these Guidelines, even if intrusive, where the degree of intrusiveness is warranted in light of the seriousness of a threat to the national security or the strength of the information indicating its existence. This point is to be particularly observed in investigations relating to terrorism. (U)

3. Respect for Legal Rights (U)

These Guidelines do not authorize investigating or maintaining information on United States persons solely for the purpose of monitoring activities protected by the First Amendment or the lawful exercise of other rights secured by the Constitution or laws of the United States. Rather, all activities under these Guidelines must have a valid purpose consistent with these Guidelines, and must be carried out in conformity with the Constitution and all applicable statutes, executive orders, Department of Justice regulations and policies, and Attorney General guidelines. (U)

4. Relationship to Other Guidelines and Authorities (U)

- a. The authority to conduct national security investigations and other activities under these Guidelines supplements, and does not supplant or limit, the authority to carry out investigations and other activities under other Attorney General guidelines or pursuant to other lawful authorities of the FBI. These Guidelines accordingly do not limit other authorized law enforcement activities of the FBI, such as those authorized by the Attorney General's Guidelines on General Crimes, Racketeering Enterprise and Terrorism Enterprise Investigations. (U)
- b. National security investigations and other activities under these Guidelines shall be carried out in conformity with all applicable Executive Branch directives and policies, including Intelligence Community directives and policies, relating to coordination of intelligence activities, information sharing, or other matters. (U)

5. Maintenance of Records under the Privacy Act (U)

Under the Privacy Act, the permissibility of maintaining records relating to certain activities of individuals who are United States persons depends in part on whether the collection of such information is "pertinent to and within the scope of an authorized law enforcement activity." 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(7). By its terms, the limitation of 5 U.S.C. 552a(e)(7) is inapplicable to activities that do not involve the maintaining of records within the meaning of the Privacy Act, or that occur pertinent to and within the scope of an authorized law enforcement activity. Activities authorized by these Guidelines are authorized law enforcement activities for purposes of the Privacy Act. As noted in paragraph 4. above, these Guidelines do not provide an exhaustive enumeration of authorized law enforcement activities. Questions about the application of the Privacy Act to other activities should be addressed to the FBI Office of the General Counsel or the Department of Justice Office of Information and Privacy. (U)

C. DETERMINATION OF UNITED STATES PERSON STATUS (U)

In some contexts, these Guidelines provide different standards or rules depending on whether investigations or other activities relate to a United States person or to a non-United States person. This Subpart shall be applied in determining whether an individual, group, or organization is a United States person. (U)

1. Meaning of United States Person (U)

A United States person is:

- a. an individual who is a United States citizen or an alien lawfully admitted for permanent residence;
- b. an unincorporated association substantially composed of individuals who are United States persons; or
- c. a corporation incorporated in the United States.

Notwithstanding the foregoing, a foreign power as defined in Part VIII.L.1.-3. of these Guidelines is never to be considered a United States person, including any foreign government or component thereof, any faction of a foreign nation or nations not substantially composed of individuals who are United States persons, or any entity that is openly acknowledged by a foreign government or governments to be directed and controlled by such foreign government or governments. (U)

3. Determination Whether Certain Groups are Substantially Composed of United States Persons (U)

In determining whether a group or organization in the United States that is affiliated with a foreign-based international organization is substantially composed of United States persons, the relationship between the two shall be considered. If the U.S.-based group or organization operates directly under the control of the international organization and has no independent program or activities in the United States, the membership of the entire international organization shall be considered in determining if it is substantially composed of United States persons. If, however, the U.S.-based group or organization has programs or activities separate from, or in addition to, those directed by the international organization, only its membership in the United States shall be considered in determining whether it is substantially composed of United States persons. (U)

D. NATURE AND APPLICATION OF THE GUIDELINES (U)

1. Status as Internal Guidance (U)

These Guidelines are set forth solely for the purpose of internal Department of Justice guidance. They are not intended to, do not, and may not be relied upon to create any rights, substantive or procedural, enforceable by law by any party in any matter, civil or criminal, nor do they place any limitation on otherwise lawful investigative and litigative prerogatives of the Department of Justice. (U)

2. Departures from the Guidelines (U)

Departures from these Guidelines must be approved by the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General. If a departure from these Guidelines is necessary without such prior approval because of the immediacy or gravity of a threat to the national security or to the safety of persons or property and the need to take immediate action to protect against such a threat, the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General shall be notified as soon thereafter as practicable. The FBI shall provide timely written notice of departures from these Guidelines to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review. Notwithstanding this paragraph, all activities in all circumstances must be carried out in a manner consistent with the Constitution and laws of the United States. (U)

3. Interpretation (U)

All significant new legal questions as to the coverage and interpretation of these guidelines will be resolved initially by the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and reviewed by the Deputy Attorney General or Attorney General as appropriate. (U)

II. NATIONAL SECURITY INVESTIGATIONS (U)

The levels of investigative activity in national security investigations are: (1) threat assessments; (2) preliminary investigations; and (3) full investigations. If the available information shows at any point that the threshold standard for a preliminary investigation or full investigation is satisfied, then that level of investigative activity may be initiated immediately, without progressing through more limited investigative stages. (U)

The scope of authorized activities under this Part is not limited to "investigation" in a narrow sense, such as solving particular cases or obtaining evidence for use in particular criminal prosecutions. Rather, these activities also provide critical information needed for broader analytic and intelligence purposes authorized by Executive Order 12333 and these Guidelines to protect the national security, such as strategic analysis under Part VI, dissemination of information to other agencies in the Intelligence Community under Part VII.B, and dissemination of information to appropriate White House officials under Part VII.B. Information obtained at all stages of investigative activity - threat assessments, preliminary investigations, and full investigations - is accordingly to be retained and disseminated for these purposes as provided in these Guidelines, or in FBI policy consistent with these Guidelines, regardless of whether it furthers investigative objectives in a narrower or more immediate sense. (U)

A. THREAT ASSESSMENTS (U)

The FBI may, without opening a preliminary or full investigation, engage in the following activities to investigate or collect information relating to threats to the national security, including information on individuals, groups, and organizations of possible investigative interest, and information concerning possible targets of international terrorism, espionage, foreign computer intrusion, or other threats to the national security:

1. Obtain publicly available information. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
2. Access and examine FBI and other Department of Justice records, and obtain information from any FBI or other Department of Justice personnel. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
3. Check records maintained by, and request information from, other federal, state, and local government entities. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
4. Use online services and resources (whether non-profit or commercial). ~~SECRET~~ (U)
5. Interview previously established assets, informants, and cooperating witnesses (not including new tasking of such persons). ~~SECRET~~ (U)
6. Interview or request information from members of the public and private entities (other than pretext interviews or requests). ~~SECRET~~ (U)
7. Accept information voluntarily provided by governmental or private entities. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

The foregoing methods may also be used, without opening a preliminary or full investigation, to identify potential assets, or to collect information to maintain the cover or credibility of an asset or employee, in connection with activities related to a threat to the national security. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

B. COMMON PROVISIONS FOR PRELIMINARY AND FULL INVESTIGATIONS (U)

1. Circumstances for Opening an Investigation (U)

The circumstances on which the initiation of a preliminary investigation or full investigation may be based are:

- a. An individual is or may be an international terrorist or an agent of a foreign power. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
- b. A group or organization is or may be a foreign power or an agent of a foreign power. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
- c.

- d. An individual, group, or organization is or may be engaging, or has or may have engaged, in activities constituting a threat to the national security (or related preparatory or support activities) for or on behalf of a foreign power. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
- e. A crime involved in or related to a threat to the national security has or may have occurred, is or may be occurring, or will or may occur. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
- f. An individual, group, or organization is, or may be, the target of a recruitment or infiltration effort by an international terrorist, foreign power, or agent of a foreign power under circumstances related to a threat to the national security. ~~SECRET~~ (U)
- g. An individual, group, organization, entity, information, property, or activity is, or may be, a target of international terrorism, espionage, foreign computer intrusion, or other threat to the national security. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

2. Authorization and Notice (U)

- a. An FBI field office or FBI Headquarters may initiate a preliminary or full investigation. A field office shall notify FBI Headquarters within ten working days of the initiation by the field office of a preliminary or full investigation. The notice of initiation of a preliminary or full investigation, whether the investigation is initiated by a field office or FBI Headquarters, shall identify the grounds for the investigation and describe any pertinent sensitive national security matter(s).

~~(S)~~ (U)

- b. FBI Headquarters shall provide the notice of the initiation of a preliminary or full investigation to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and to the Criminal Division, and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review shall notify the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General. The notice shall be provided to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and the Criminal Division within ten working days of receipt of the notice from a field office by FBI Headquarters or initiation of the investigation by FBI headquarters. The FBI shall also provide the notice of initiation to any relevant United States Attorney's office, subject to authorization by the Criminal Division in an espionage case. Exceptions may be adopted to the requirements of this subparagraph as provided in Part VII.B.2.d. (U)
- c. The FBI shall notify the Deputy Attorney General if FBI Headquarters disapproves a field office's initiation of a preliminary or full investigation. (U)

3. Investigations of Groups and Organizations (U)

- a. Preliminary and full investigations of groups and organizations should (U) be based on activities related to threats to the national security, not on unrelated First Amendment activities. Any information concerning a group or organization that is relevant to the investigation of a threat to the national security may be sought, including information on any relationship of the group or organization to a foreign power; the identity of its members, employees, or other persons who may be acting in furtherance of its objectives; its finances; its geographical dimensions; and its past and future activities and goals. ~~(S)~~ (U)
- b. In the course of a preliminary or full investigation of a group or organization, it may appear that investigation of an individual or individuals within or associated with the group or organization is warranted, beyond the investigation of the individual's activities related to the group or organization as part of the investigation of the group or organization. A preliminary or full investigation of such an individual may be initiated whenever the requirements for initiating a preliminary or full investigation of an individual are satisfied. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

C. PRELIMINARY INVESTIGATIONS (U)

1. Initiation (U)

A field office or FBI Headquarters may initiate a preliminary investigation:

- a. when there is information or an allegation indicating the existence of a circumstance described in Part II.B.1 of these Guidelines, in order to determine whether the basis exists for a full investigation; or
- b. in order to identify potential assets, to determine the suitability or credibility of an individual as an asset, or to collect information to maintain the cover or credibility of an asset or employee. in connection with activities related to a threat to the national security. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

2. Approval Levels (U)

A preliminary investigation initiated by a field office must be approved by the Special Agent in Charge if the investigation involves a sensitive national security matter. Other preliminary investigations may be approved by the Special Agent in Charge or, as authorized by the Special Agent in Charge, by an Assistant Special Agent in Charge or squad supervisor with responsibility for national security investigations. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

3. Authorized techniques (U)

All lawful investigative techniques may be used in preliminary investigations, including the techniques listed in Part V of these Guidelines, other than the techniques described in Part V.17.-18. (mail opening, physical search, or electronic surveillance requiring judicial order or warrant). ~~SECRET~~ (U)

4. Duration (U)

Preliminary investigations shall be completed within six months of the date of initiation. In a preliminary investigation initiated by a field office, the Special Agent in Charge or, as authorized by the Special Agent in Charge, an Assistant Special Agent in Charge responsible for the investigation, may authorize an extension for an additional six-month period if warranted by facts or information obtained in the course of the investigation. An extension of a preliminary investigation beyond the initial one-year period requires FBI Headquarters approval and may be granted in six-month increments. All extensions shall be in writing and include the reason for the extension. If FBI Headquarters approves an extension of a preliminary investigation beyond the initial one-year period, the FBI shall notify the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and provide to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review the extension statement (as described in the preceding sentence) within ten working days of the transmittal of the approval to a field office. ~~(U)~~

D. FULL INVESTIGATIONS (U)

1. Initiation (U)

FBI Headquarters or a field office may initiate a full investigation if there are specific and articulable facts that give reason to believe that a circumstance described in Part II.B.1 of these Guidelines exists. ~~(U)~~

2. Approval Levels (U)

A full investigation initiated by a field office must be approved by the Special Agent in Charge if the investigation involves a sensitive national security matter. A full investigation of a foreign official or visitor from a threat country may be approved by the Special Agent in Charge or, as authorized by the Special Agent in Charge, by an Assistant Special Agent in Charge or squad supervisor with responsibility for national security investigations. All other full investigations may be approved by the Special Agent in Charge or, as authorized by the Special Agent in Charge, by an Assistant Special Agent in Charge with responsibility for national security investigations. ~~(U)~~

3. Authorized techniques (U)

All lawful investigative techniques may be used in full investigations, including the techniques listed in Part V of these Guidelines. ~~(U)~~

4. Reports (U)

In addition to the notice concerning the initiation of investigations required under Part II.B.2 of these Guidelines, the FBI shall notify the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and the Criminal Division at the end of each year a full investigation continues, and shall prepare and provide to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review and the Criminal Division at that time a summary of the investigation that includes the information described in Part VII.A.2 of these Guidelines as it relates to the investigation. The FBI shall also provide the summary to any relevant United States Attorney's office, subject to authorization by the Criminal Division in an espionage case. The Office of Intelligence Policy and Review shall notify the Attorney General and the Deputy Attorney General concerning full investigations that continue a year or more and the annual summaries in such investigations. Exceptions may be adopted to the requirements of this paragraph as provided in Part VII.B.2.d. (U)

2.

3.

III. INVESTIGATIVE ASSISTANCE TO STATE, LOCAL, AND FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS

A. STATE AND LOCAL GOVERNMENTS (U)

The FBI may assist state and local governments in investigations relating to threats to the national security. (U)

B. FOREIGN GOVERNMENTS (U)

1. The FBI may conduct background inquiries concerning consenting individuals when requested by foreign governments or agencies. (U)

2.

3. The FBI may not provide assistance to foreign law enforcement, intelligence, or security officers conducting investigations within the United States unless such officers have provided prior notification to the Department of State as required by 18 U.S.C. 951. (U)
4. The FBI may provide other material and technical assistance to foreign governments to the extent not otherwise prohibited by law. (U)

IV. FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE COLLECTION AND ASSISTANCE TO INTELLIGENCE AGENCIES (U)

A. FOREIGN INTELLIGENCE COLLECTION (U)

1. The FBI may collect foreign intelligence in response to requirements of topical interest published by an entity authorized by the Director of Central Intelligence to establish such requirements, including, but not limited to, the National HUMINT Requirements Tasking Center. When approved by the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General, the FBI may collect other foreign intelligence in response to tasking specifically levied on the FBI by an official of the Intelligence Community designated by the President. Upon a request by an official of the Intelligence Community designated by the President, the FBI may also collect foreign intelligence to clarify or complete foreign intelligence previously disseminated by the FBI. Copies of such requests shall be provided to the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review. (U)

2. The FBI may also collect foreign intelligence, if consistent with Executive Order 12333 or a successor order, as directed by the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General. (U)

B. OPERATIONAL SUPPORT (U)

1. When approved by the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General, the FBI may provide operational support to authorized intelligence activities of other entities of the Intelligence Community upon a request made or confirmed in writing by an official of the Intelligence Community designated by the President. The request shall describe the type and duration of support required, the reasons why the FBI is being requested to furnish the assistance, and the techniques that are expected to be utilized, and shall certify that such assistance is necessary to an authorized activity of the requesting entity. (U)
2. The support may include techniques set forth in the approved request and, with the approval of FBI Headquarters, any other technique that does not substantially alter the character of the support. The FBI shall promptly notify the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review of the utilization of any such additional techniques. (U)
3. The FBI may recruit new assets to obtain information or services needed to furnish the requested support, subject to the same standards and procedures applicable to other FBI assets. (U)

C. CENTRAL INTELLIGENCE AGENCY AND DEPARTMENT OF DEFENSE ACTIVITIES WITHIN THE UNITED STATES (U)

V. INVESTIGATIVE TECHNIQUES (U)

Authorized investigative techniques under these Guidelines include, but are not limited to:

1. The techniques authorized in threat assessments under Part II.A. ~~(U)~~ (U)
2. Interviews and pretext interviews of the subject of an investigation and other persons. ~~(U)~~ (U)
3. Tasking of previously established assets, informants, and cooperating witnesses, and recruitment of new assets, informants, and cooperating witnesses. ~~(U)~~ (U)
4. Inquiry of foreign law enforcement, intelligence, or security agencies, and operations outside of the United States in conformity with Part II.E. ~~(U)~~ (U)
- 5.
6. Mail covers. ~~(U)~~ (U)
7. Physical, photographic, and video surveillance (where such surveillance does not require unconsented entry), including use of such surveillance to identify an individual in

- contact with the subject of a preliminary or full investigation. ~~(U)~~
8. Physical searches of personal or real property where a warrant or court order is not legally required because there is no reasonable expectation of privacy (e.g., trash covers). ~~(U)~~
  9. Use of closed circuit television, direction finders, and other monitoring devices, subject to legal review by the Chief Division Counsel or the FBI Office of the General Counsel. The methods described in this paragraph usually do not require court orders or warrants unless they involve physical trespass or non-consensual monitoring of communications, but legal review is necessary to ensure compliance with all applicable legal requirements. ~~(U)~~
  10. Consensual monitoring of communications, including consensual computer monitoring, subject to legal review by the Chief Division Counsel or the FBI Office of the General Counsel. ~~(U)~~
  11. Polygraph examinations. ~~(U)~~
  12. Use of National Security Letters in conformity with 15 U.S.C. 1681u or 1681v (relating to consumer information), 18 U.S.C. 2709 (relating to subscriber information, toll billing records, and electronic communication transactional records), 12 U.S.C. 3414(a)(5)(A) (relating to financial records), or 50 U.S.C. 436 (relating to financial, consumer, and travel records of certain executive branch employees). ~~(U)~~
  13. Accessing stored wire and electronic communications and transactional records in conformity with chapter 121 of title 18, United States Code (18 U.S.C. 2701-2712). ~~(U)~~
  14. Use of open registers and trap and trace devices in conformity with FISA (50 U.S.C. 1841-1846) or chapter 206 of title 18, United States Code (18 U.S.C. 3121-3127). ~~(U)~~
  15. Obtaining business records and other tangible things in conformity with FISA (50 U.S.C. 1861-1863). ~~(U)~~
  16. Use of grand jury subpoenas and other subpoenas as authorized by law. ~~(U)~~

17. Electronic surveillance in conformity with chapter 119 of title 18, United States Code (18 U.S.C. 2510-2522), FISA (50 U.S.C. 1801-1811), or Executive Order 12333 § 2.5. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

VI. STRATEGIC ANALYSIS (U)

The FBI may examine and analyze information in its possession in order to produce and disseminate foreign intelligence and counterintelligence. The FBI may draw on information from any source permitted by law in carrying out this function, including any information it has collected or obtained through investigative activities or other activities pursuant to these Guidelines. The FBI may also engage in the activities authorized in threat assessments under Part II.A to supplement information that is otherwise in its possession, for the purpose of carrying out analysis and producing and disseminating foreign intelligence and counterintelligence under this Part. (U)

VII. RETENTION AND DISSEMINATION OF INFORMATION (U)

A. INFORMATION SYSTEMS AND DATABASES (U)

1. The FBI shall retain records relating to preliminary and full investigations, foreign intelligence collection and support activities, and other activities under these Guidelines in accordance with a records retention plan approved by the National Archives and Records Administration. All such records shall be available for review upon request by the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review, including all information in the database or records system described in paragraph 2. (U)
2. The FBI shall maintain a database or records system that permits the prompt retrieval of the following information:
  - a. The identity and status of each preliminary or full investigation (open or closed), the dates of opening and closing, the predication for the investigation, and whether the investigation involves a United States person. ~~SECRET~~ (U)

- b. The number of preliminary investigations, the number of preliminary investigations involving United States persons, the number of preliminary investigations involving United States persons in which an extension has been granted, and the number of preliminary investigations that resulted in a full investigation. ~~(U)~~
- c. The number of full investigations and the number of such investigations involving United States persons. ~~(U)~~
- d. The identity of each full investigation of a group in the United States substantially composed of United States persons that is acting for or on behalf of an international terrorist organization. If such an investigation continues a year or more, the annual summary or summaries for the investigation shall include an assessment of the extent to which members of the group are aware of the terrorist aims of the international organization. ~~(U)~~
- e. The number of requests for assistance received from foreign law enforcement, intelligence, or security agencies involving United States persons, and information on the nature of each such request and whether the requested assistance was furnished or declined. ~~(U)~~

B. INFORMATION SHARING (U)

Legal rules and Department of Justice policies regarding information sharing and interagency coordination have been significantly modified since the September 11, 2001, terrorist attack by statutory reforms and new Attorney General guidelines. The general principle reflected in current laws and policies is that information should be shared as consistently and fully as possible among agencies with relevant responsibilities to protect the United States and its people from terrorism and other threats to the national security, except as limited by specific constraints on such sharing. Under this general principle, the FBI shall provide information expeditiously to other agencies in the Intelligence Community, so that these agencies can take action in a timely manner to protect the national security in accordance with their lawful functions. This Subpart provides standards and procedures for the sharing and dissemination of information obtained in national security investigations, foreign intelligence collection, and other activities under these Guidelines. (U)

1. General (U)

- a. Information may be disseminated with the consent of the person whom the information concerns, or where necessary to protect life or property from threatened force or violence, otherwise necessary for the safety or security of persons or property or for the prevention of crime, or necessary to obtain information for the conduct of a lawful investigation by the FBI. (U)
- b. Information that is publicly available or does not identify United States persons may be disseminated for any lawful purpose. (U)
- c. Dissemination of information provided to the FBI by other Intelligence Community agencies is subject to applicable agreements and understandings with such agencies concerning the dissemination of such information. (U)

2. Department of Justice (U)

- a. The FBI may share information obtained through activities under these Guidelines with other components of the Department of Justice. (U)
- b. The Criminal Division and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review shall have access to all information obtained through activities under these Guidelines except as limited by orders issued by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court, controls imposed by the originators of sensitive material, or restrictions established by the Attorney General or the Deputy Attorney General in particular cases. (U)
- c. The FBI shall keep the Criminal Division and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review apprised of all information obtained through activities under these Guidelines that is necessary to the ability of the United States to investigate or protect against threats to the national security, subject to the limits noted in subparagraph b. The FBI shall also keep the Criminal Division and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review apprised of information concerning any crime which is obtained through activities under these Guidelines. (U)
- d. As part of its responsibility under subparagraphs b. and c., the FBI shall provide to the Criminal Division and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review notices of the initiation of investigations and annual notices and summaries as provided in Part II.B.2 and .D.4 of these Guidelines, and shall make available to the Criminal Division and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review relevant information from investigative files. The Criminal Division shall adhere to any reasonable conditions on the storage and disclosure of such documents and information that the FBI and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review may require. The FBI and the Criminal Division may adopt by mutual agreement exceptions to the provision of notices of the initiation of investigations and annual notices and summaries to the Criminal Division, and the FBI and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review may adopt by mutual agreement exceptions to the provision of notices of initiation of investigations and annual notices and summaries to the Office of Intelligence and Policy Review. (U)

- e. The FBI, the Criminal Division, and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review shall consult with each other concerning national security investigations and other activities under these Guidelines, and shall meet regularly to conduct such consultations. Consultations may also be conducted directly between two or more components at any time. Consultations may include the exchange of advice and information on all issues necessary to the ability of the United States to investigate or protect against threats to the national security, including protection against such threats through criminal investigation and prosecution. Consultations are subject to any limitations in orders of the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court and restrictions established by the Attorney General or the Deputy Attorney General in particular cases. Disagreements arising from consultations may be presented to the Deputy Attorney General or the Attorney General for resolution. (U)
- f. Subject to subparagraphs g. and h., relevant United States Attorneys' offices shall receive information and engage in consultations to the same extent as the Criminal Division. Thus, the relevant United States Attorneys' offices shall have access to information, shall be kept apprised of information necessary to protect national security, shall be kept apprised of information concerning crimes, shall receive notices of the initiation of investigations and annual summaries as provided in Part II.B.2 and .D.4 of these Guidelines, and shall have access to FBI files, to the same extent as the Criminal Division. The relevant United States Attorneys' offices shall receive such access and information from the FBI field offices. The relevant United States Attorneys' offices also may and shall engage in regular consultations with the FBI and the Office of Intelligence Policy and Review to the same extent as the Criminal Division. (U)

- g. In espionage cases, dissemination of information to United States Attorneys' offices and consultations between the FBI and United States Attorneys' offices are subject to authorization by the Criminal Division. In an emergency, the FBI may disseminate information to, and consult with, a United States Attorney's office concerning an espionage investigation without the approval of the Criminal Division, but shall notify the Criminal Division as soon as possible thereafter. (U)
- h. Information disseminated to a United States Attorney's office pursuant to subparagraph f. shall be disseminated only to the United States Attorney and/or any Assistant United States Attorneys designated to the Department of Justice by the United States Attorney as points of contact to receive such information. The United States Attorneys and designated Assistant United States Attorneys shall have appropriate security clearances and shall receive training in the handling of classified information and information derived from FISA, including training concerning restrictions on the use and dissemination of such information. (U)

3. Intelligence Community, Federal Law Enforcement Agencies, and Department of Homeland Security (U)

- a. The FBI shall carry out the requirements of the Memorandum of Understanding Between the Intelligence Community, Federal Law Enforcement Agencies, and the Department of Homeland Security Concerning Information Sharing ("Memorandum of Understanding"), signed by the Attorney General on March 4, 2003. As provided in the Memorandum of Understanding and subject to its provisions, these requirements include timely sharing by the FBI of covered information with other covered entities having a need-to-know, based on a broad interpretation of the missions of the prospective recipients. As used in this paragraph:
  - 1) 'covered entity' has the same meaning as in the Memorandum of Understanding, including any element of the Department of Homeland Security (and that Department itself); any element of the Intelligence Community (including the Central Intelligence Agency and the Terrorist Threat Integration Center) or of the Department of Justice; and any other entity having federal law enforcement responsibilities;

- 2) 'covered information' has the same meaning as in the Memorandum of Understanding, including terrorism information, weapons of mass destruction information, and vulnerabilities information, as well as analyses based wholly or in part on such covered information;
  - 3) 'need-to-know,' 'infrastructure,' 'terrorism information,' 'vulnerabilities information,' and 'weapons of mass destruction information' have the same meanings as in the Memorandum of Understanding; and
  - 4) 'timely sharing' of covered information means provision by the FBI of covered information, subject to section 3(h) and other provisions of the Memorandum of Understanding, to other covered entities having a need-to-know: (i) immediately where the FBI reasonably believes that the information relates to a potential terrorism or weapons of mass destruction threat, to the United States Homeland, its infrastructure, or to United States persons or interests, and (ii) as expeditiously as possible with respect to other covered information. (U)
- b. All procedures, guidelines, and mechanisms under the Memorandum of Understanding shall be designed and implemented, and all determinations with regard to sharing information covered by the Memorandum of Understanding shall be made, with the understood, overriding priority of preventing, preempting, and disrupting terrorist threats to the United States. In some cases, this priority will dictate the provision of information even where doing so may affect criminal prosecutions or ongoing law enforcement or intelligence operations. However, consistent with this overriding priority, the FBI shall act in a manner to protect, to the greatest extent possible, these other significant interests, including the protection of intelligence and sensitive law enforcement sources and methods, other classified information, and sensitive operational and prosecutorial information. (U)

- c. To the greatest extent possible, information should be shared among covered entities with relevant missions and responsibilities, and there should be transparency among them with regard to their activities to preempt, prevent, and disrupt terrorist attacks against United States persons and interests. Except as otherwise specified in the Memorandum of Understanding, or mandated by relevant federal statutes or Presidential Directives, procedures and mechanisms for information sharing, use, and handling shall be interpreted and implemented consistently and reciprocally regardless of the role a particular entity plays as a provider or recipient of covered information. (U)

4. Federal Authorities (U)

The FBI may disseminate information obtained through activities under these Guidelines to other federal authorities when:

- a. the information relates to a crime or other violation of law or regulation which falls within the recipient's investigative jurisdiction, or the information otherwise relates to the recipient's authorized responsibilities;
- b. the recipient is a component of the Intelligence Community, and the information is provided to allow the recipient to determine whether the information is relevant to its responsibilities and can be retained or used;
- c. the information is required to be furnished to another federal agency by Executive Order 10450 or its successor; or
- d. the information is required to be disseminated by statute, Presidential directive, National Security Council directive, Attorney General directive, or interagency agreement approved by the Attorney General. (U)

5. State and Local Authorities (U)

The FBI may disseminate information obtained through activities under these Guidelines to state and local authorities when:

- a. the information relates to a crime or other violation of law or regulation which falls within the recipient's jurisdiction, and the dissemination is consistent with national security;

- b. the dissemination is for the purpose of preventing or responding to a threat to the national security, or to public safety, including a threat to the life, health, or safety of any individual or community; or
- c. the information is required to be disseminated by statute, Presidential directive, National Security Council directive, Attorney General directive, or intergovernmental agreement approved by the Attorney General. (U)

6. Foreign Authorities (U)

- a. The FBI may disseminate information obtained through activities under these Guidelines to foreign authorities when:
  - 1) the dissemination of the information is in the interest of the national security of the United States, or the information is relevant to the recipient's authorized responsibilities and its dissemination is consistent with the national security interests of the United States, and the FBI has considered the effect such dissemination may reasonably be expected to have on any identifiable United States person; or
  - 2) the information is required to be disseminated by statute or treaty, Presidential directive or executive agreement, National Security Council directive, or Attorney General directive. (U)
- b. Dissemination to foreign authorities having significant implications for foreign relations shall be coordinated with the Department of State. (U)

7. Congressional Committees (U)

Except for briefings and testimony on matters of general intelligence interest, information obtained through activities under these Guidelines may be disseminated to appropriate congressional committees when authorized by the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General. Any agency requesting or involved in the collection of the information shall be consulted prior to such dissemination. A request for United States person information that has been withheld from dissemination under this paragraph shall be referred to the Attorney General, the Deputy Attorney General, or an official designated by the Attorney General, for resolution. (U)

8. White House (U)

In order to carry out their responsibilities, the President, the Vice President, the Assistant to the President for National Security Affairs, the Assistant to the President for Homeland Security Affairs, the National Security Council and its staff, the Homeland Security Council and its staff, and other White House officials and offices require information from all federal agencies, including foreign intelligence, and information relating to international terrorism and other threats to the national security. The FBI accordingly may disseminate information obtained through activities under these Guidelines to the White House, subject to the following standards and procedures: (U)

- a. Requests to the FBI for such information from the White House shall be made through the National Security Council staff or Homeland Security Council staff including, but not limited to, the National Security Council Legal and Intelligence Directorates and Office of Combating Terrorism. (U)
- b. Compromising information concerning domestic officials or political organizations, or information concerning activities of United States persons intended to affect the political process in the United States, may be disseminated to the White House only with the approval of the Attorney General, based on a determination that such dissemination is needed for foreign intelligence purposes, for the purpose of protecting against international terrorism or other threats to the national security, or for the conduct of foreign affairs. However, such approval is not required for dissemination to the White House of information concerning efforts of foreign intelligence services to penetrate the White House, or concerning contacts by White House personnel with foreign intelligence service personnel. (U)
- c. Examples of types of information that are suitable for dissemination to the White House on a routine basis include, but are not limited to:
  - 1) information concerning international terrorism;

- 2) information concerning activities of foreign intelligence services in the United States;
  - 3) information indicative of imminent hostilities involving any foreign power;
  - 4) information concerning potential cyber threats to the United States or its allies;
  - 5) information indicative of policy positions adopted by foreign officials, governments, or powers, or their reactions to United States foreign policy initiatives;
  - 6) information relating to possible changes in leadership positions of foreign governments, parties, factions, or powers;
  - 7) information concerning foreign economic or foreign political matters that might have national security ramifications; and
  - 8) information set forth in regularly published national intelligence requirements. (U)
- d. The limitations on dissemination of information by the FBI to the White House under these Guidelines do not apply to dissemination to the White House of information acquired in the course of an FBI investigation requested by the White House into the background of a potential employee or appointee, or responses to requests from the White House under Executive Order 10450. (U)

C. SPECIAL STATUTORY REQUIREMENTS (U)

1. Dissemination of information acquired under the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Act is subject to minimization procedures approved by the Foreign Intelligence Surveillance Court and other requirements specified in that Act. (U)
2. Information obtained through the use of National Security Letters under 15 U.S.C. 1681 v may be disseminated in conformity with the general standards of this Part.

Information obtained through the use of National Security Letters under other statutes may be disseminated in conformity with the general standards of this Part, subject to any applicable limitations in their governing statutory provisions: 12 U.S.C. 3414(a)(5)(B); 15 U.S.C. 1681u(f); 18 U.S.C. 2709(d); 50 U.S.C. 436(e). (U)

VIII. DEFINITIONS (U)

A. AGENT OF A FOREIGN POWER:

1. any person who is not a United States person and who:
  - a. acts in the United States as an officer or employee of a foreign power, or as a member of a group engaged in international terrorism or activities in preparation therefor; or
  - b. acts for or on behalf of a foreign power which engages in clandestine intelligence activities in the United States contrary to the interests of the United States, when the circumstances of such person's presence in the United States indicate that such person may engage in such activities in the United States, or when such person knowingly aids or abets any person in the conduct of such activities or knowingly conspires with any person to engage in such activities; or
2. any person who:
  - a. knowingly engages in clandestine intelligence gathering activities for or on behalf of a foreign power, which activities involve or may involve a violation of the criminal statutes of the United States;
